China Flies a Hawaiian Flag.
 LONDON, July 20.—C. P. Huntington, president of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, through Col. G.
 W. Macfarlane, has had the registry of the steamship China, of the Pacific Mail line, transferred from the British to the Hawaiian flag. The China, under the command of Captain Seabury, sailed from Yokohama July 8th, via Honolulu, for San Francisco, and is due to arrive there in a few days.

WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD SIGNAL STA-TION, August 3, 10 p. m.—The weather is clear; wind, light; north.

The R. P. Rithet is at the Oceanic wharf.
 The Doric sailed for China and Japan at 12 noon yesterday.

The schooner Norma sailed last night for Waialua with supplies for the men working on the new road from Makua.
 Carl Rhodes was yesterday appointed as Custom House inspector, to fill one of the places recently made vacant by resignations.

The Mauna Loa arrived from Maui and Hawaii ports early yesterday afternoon, bringing a very large cargo of sugar and other island products.

The American barkentine W. H. Dimond, Nilson master, arrived in port at 6:30 p. m. yesterday, 18 days from San Francisco, with a cargo of 850 tons of general merchandise, consigned to F. A.
 & Co. She cleared from San Francisco on July 16.

The American barkentine S. G. Wilder, McNeil master, arrived in port at 5:30 p. m. yesterday, 18 days from San Francisco, with a cargo of 850 tons of general merchandise, consigned to F. A.
 & Co. She cleared from San Francisco
 on July 16.

Commodore Arrives.
 The American ship Commodore, Davidson master, arrived in port at about 7 o'clock last night and hauled alongside the Pacific Mail wharf, after a fine run of 11 days from San Francisco, with 550 tons of ballast. The Commodore is consigned to Wm. G. Irwin & Co. and will load sugar immediately for New York. She will be the last of the fleet this season for New York.

The Commodore could have been pushed more quickly, but the men were kept down below getting the hold ready for putting in sugar. All but a very small portion is lined, ready to begin.
 It will be remembered that the Commodore caught fire during the blaze at the Oceanic wharf in June, and sustained damages that kept her in San Francisco quite a while. She cleared from that port on July 16th, but did not get away until the 23d. She was put on the dry dock to ascertain what injuries had been done to her steering gear in getting her away from the fire.
 It was found that her metal lining, in some parts, needed replacing, so she was delayed three days longer.
 Captain Davidson brings his wife, who was in Honolulu with him last year.

Got Wrong Name.

G. Carson Kenyon called in at the Police Station yesterday afternoon and said that he wished to swear out a warrant for the arrest of a man by the name of Testa on the charge of assault and battery. The warrant was duly sworn to by the Judge, and an officer called at the office of F. J. Testa, King street. Upon reading the warrant Mr. Testa noticed that the name written there was "Hosen," instead of F. J.
 Testa, so he politely informed the officer that there was no one by that name in the place. The warrant was returned to the office.

The complaint made by Kenyon was to the effect that he had gone into F. J.
 Testa's office to collect some rents due and that he had been forcibly ejected from the place.

W. H. Cornwell, Jr., gave a champagne supper to a number of his friends at his residence, King street, Monday evening, the event being the anniversary of his birthday.
